

Linguistics Concentration
Linguistics 499: Senior Research Project (2 or 4 credits)*
Application for Approval of Project

The deadline for submission of this application to the Chair of the Linguistics Concentration (Prof. Valentine, ARH 220B) is the eighth week of the semester (Friday, October 31), before your senior project. Once your project is approved by the Concentration Committee, you should pre-register for Linguistics 499 under the name of your principal adviser.

Name: _____ Box number: _____ E-mail _____

Concentration adviser: _____

Tentative title of project: _____

Two or Four credits? _____

Principal adviser on project: _____

Second reader: _____

(If your principal adviser is not a member of the Concentration Committee, your second reader must be.)

Third reader (if required by Committee): _____

Description of project: Please attach a 500-word description of your project. That description should include as clear a statement as you can currently make of 1) the question you intend to address or investigate, 2) your plan for carrying out that intention, and 3) the way your project builds on previous work and therefore allows you to work independently. Please also include a tentative bibliography.

Are the materials available to complete the project? _____

Please attach a schedule of meetings with your principal adviser.

Date for submission of your seminar paper (minimum: 2500 words) on your project results: _____

Tentative date for public presentation of project: _____

Signature _____ Date _____

Approval:
Principal adviser _____ Date _____

Second reader _____ Date _____

Third reader (if required) _____ Date _____

Concentration chair _____ Date _____

*Please note that if this project will be a MAP (LIN 499), an additional application process must be followed. See <http://www.grinnell.edu/offices/dean/MAP/> for detail and for the application form which must be submitted to the Registrar by the Monday following the end of preregistration.