SPRING BREAK HOUSING POLICY AND PROCEDURES

You have been identified as a student who will be staying in College housing during part or all of Spring Break. Please remember that remaining on campus during break is a privilege. You are expected to abide by College rules and regulations. Your presence on campus as an essential student implies your compliance and acceptance of these procedures.

Alcohol and Drug Policy: Spring Break is a substance free time on campus regardless of residence hall or house. There will be no alcohol use on campus and no parties involving alcohol during this time.

Guest Policy
Students who have permission to stay in College-owned housing over Spring Break may have guests visit them in the residence halls and College-owned houses under the following circumstances:
1. Each student who has been given permission to stay over Spring Break is limited to two guests on campus at one time.
2. Each guest(s) must check-in with the Security Office when they arrive on campus and check-out with the Security Office when they permanently leave campus. Failure to check guests in with the Security Office or having unauthorized guests on campus will result in a $100 fine per incident.
3. The guest(s) cannot be a currently enrolled Grinnell College student.
4. Each student is responsible for the behavior of his/her guest.

RLC Coverage: Two RLCs are on-call throughout break. They can be reached by contacting Security at x4600.

Food Preparation: Students staying in residence halls or houses are responsible for all food preparation. Marketplace Dining is closed during Spring Break. The Spencer Grill is open Monday thru Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. during Spring Break – CLOSED WEEKENDS.

Public Areas and Cleanliness: The halls, lounges, and kitchens must be kept clean at all times during break. Dirty dishes will be disposed of daily. Extra charges/fees will be assessed for cleaning and/or damages. Students and their associated group that leave public areas messy/dirty will lose the privilege of break housing in the future.

Access to Campus Housing: For your safety and security, the halls and houses are locked. Please do not leave any doors propped open. Residents are responsible for their property and contents. You will be able to use your P-card to access the residence halls and houses. Your P-card will only work for the dates you are authorized to stay during break. Do not let unauthorized students into the residence halls. Students will be fined a minimum of $100 for being in the residence halls without permission. Students who give unauthorized students access to residence halls will be fined a minimum of $100.

Facilities Management: Facilities Management may be working in various residence halls and college-owned houses during break.

Health Center and Related Services: The Health Center is closed. There are no College health services or rides for medical appointments, Grinnell Regional Medical Center Sub-Acute Care, or Poweshiek County Mental Health.

Events / Parties: Lounge contracts and wristbands are not available during break periods. Events where alcohol will be distributed are not permitted on campus. Students found responsible for alcoholic distribution during break periods will be required to leave campus until the semester begins and judicial charges will be pursued.
