Grinnell College Audio Visual can make copies from a finalized original. They do NOT provide the blank discs, however. Their duplicating equipment will work with any type of blank DVD (-R +R RW's etc) but -R discs are the least expensive. The guidelines for duplications set by Bill Francis are no more than 12 copies for any individual or group. If the Music Department needs greater quantities, contact Paul Nelson. The AV center does not label discs.