Cultural Announcements

Color of Fear

Diversity Coalition is a student group committed to being a catalyst for dialogue, providing opportunities for people to explore their own and other's attitudes and behaviors. We would like to present Lee Mun Wah's Color of Fear. The documentary consists of a powerful discussion between 8 men of 4 different races, brought together on a retreat. The showings will be followed by discussion among the participants. The workshops are intended for participants to explore issues of race.

To ensure open discussion, we would like to limit the number of participants to 12 for each workshop. Scheduled dates are Saturdays April 4 and April 18 from 1-6 p.m. Due to an increased demand from college administrators/ staff, there will be a separate workshop for administrators and staff on April 4, if there are sufficient participants. Interested? E-mail [divco] with your name and preference for which day. We will then send you a short questionnaire. Don't miss this golden opportunity to view a critically acclaimed film recently purchased by the Office of Multicultural Affairs!

French House Film

Wednesday, March 25, at 9:00 p.m. in French House, 1130 East Street, Nine Months, Neuf Mois (French Version).

Forum Terrace Art Gallery

Grinnell Women in Art, works by Lucy Rollins, Regan Golden-McNerney, Celia Sears, Lucia Danielson, Stephanie Devries, and Kate Wallestad is currently on display at the Terrace Art Gallery. A reception for the show will be held in the gallery tonight, Tuesday, March 10 at 8:00 p.m. The public is invited to attend. The show will run through Friday, March 13. The Terrace Art Gallery is open during regular Forum hours.

Performing Arts Film: Fastbreak

Gabe Kaplan, who starred as a high school teacher on the popular Seventies sitcom Welcome Back, Kotter, plays a somewhat similar role in this story of a man who dreams of becoming a basketball coach. An opportunity comes his way when an obscure Nevada college gives him a 'trial' offer. Under the 'contract', he will get fifty dollars for each game he wins and will receive a legitimate contract for the following year if the team whips its rival, Nevada State. Made up of 'misfits', including a girl disguised as a guy, the team climbs to national prominence but must then face one of the most powerful teams in the country. —A fun film with built in suspense—Just right for celebrating the end of the basketball season and the upcoming vacation. Thursday March 12—9:15 p.m.—Harris. 110 minutes.

Recital Rescheduled

An organ recital by Keith Sadko, which was scheduled for Sunday, March 8 at 8 p.m., has been rescheduled for Wednesday, March 11, at 8 p.m. in Herrick Chapel.

Student Band Concert

Thursday, March 12; Gates Lounge; 8:30 p.m.: Student Recital by the Burnie Psykes 5.

The Art of the Indian Voice

Lalitha Krishnan will perform Carnatic, or South Indian, vocal music in a recital at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 10, in the South Lounge, the Forum. Krishnan's concert is one in a series of The Art of the Indian Voice sponsored by the music and religious studies departments. Further support for this program has been provided by the Indian Non-Profit Classical Music Association, Inc., of Maryland.

Krishnan and her two accompanists, Madurai Gnanasundaram (violin) and Ganapathy Raman (mridangam, the classical South Indian drum), are acclaimed young artists in the contemporary Carnatic musical world. Born into a musical family and married into one of South India's most distinguished musical lineages, Krishnan is admired both for her flawless technique and for the emotional depth of her performances. The trio's performance affords the Grinnell College community an opportunity to hear the melodically virtuosic and rhythmically exciting music of distant India.

Tuesday Movie Madness: Jacob's Ladder

This week's film is Adrian Lyne's (Fatal Attraction) Jacob's Ladder a psychological horror film starring Tim Robbins as a vietnam vet trapped in a web of hallucinations, memories, and nightmares as he tries to rebuild his peacetime life. Excellent and stylish modern horror. Gardner Lounge, 10 p.m., Tuesday, 11 March.

Upcoming Music at Grinnell

•Tuesday, March 10, South Lounge, 8 p.m.: Recital of South Indian Classical Music performed by Lalitha GJR Krishnan, vocalist, with instrumental accompaniment.

Diversity Coalition Seeks New Members

Diversity Coalition is a student group committed to being a catalyst for dialogue, providing opportunities for people to explore their own and other's attitudes and behaviors. Founded in the Spring of 1995 to promote dialogue on campus and within the surrounding community, we have since been involved in conducting workshops and seminars related to issues of diversity and multiculturalism, under the Office of Multicultural Affairs.

We are committed to fostering dialogue about the differences of race, ethnicity, gender, class, culture, religion and sexual orientation. Workshops conducted in the residence halls, academic and administrative department are designed to promote awareness on campus by helping participants confront stereotypes through interactive exercises.

This past year, DivCo has been involved in creating dialogue by conducting workshops in the residence halls, through Social Action Theater during New Student Orientation and for the ACM- Committee on Minority Concerns hosted by Grinnell College in November 1997.

If you are interested in becoming a member of DivCo, please e-mail [divco@ac.grin.edu]
