The Final Paper is due during our final exam period on Tuesday, December 18 by 12 pm to Carnegie 115. It is worth 30% of your grade.

The topics of your final papers are open, provided they focus on some aspect of social movements. You may make use of secondary resources. The paper does not require original research. You may incorporate one of your reaction papers (further developed) into the body of the paper.

The length of the final paper should be 10-15 pages (no more than 15 of 12-point typed, double-spaced pages). It should include:

1. Title page
2. Introduction (this can be a revision of the proposal submitted in November)
3. Body of the paper (this includes contributions from class readings on social movements and from readings from your own library research)
4. Conclusion
5. Bibliography (at least 5 sources)